MATTHEW McCORMICK

Matthew McCormick is a multi-disciplinary design studio based in Vancouver, Canada that produces functional lighting and artistic installations. Founded in 2013 by Matthew McCormick, the studio designs, manufactures, and retails McCormick's own collections. In addition to creating bespoke, sculptural lighting installations, all McCormick's products are made in Canada by a network of young manufacturers and craftsmen. Balancing handcrafted processes with the latest technology, his designs reflect a modernist approach and the pursuit of minimal excellence.

HALO

Originally conceived as a graphically interpretation of effervescence, Halo is series of bold lamps inspired by the soft warm glow their illuminaire. This modular system allow the pendants to be suspended in a multitude of compositions as a range of eleganhanging art pieces. Machined and hand finished, they are available brass, copper, nickel and 24 karat gold.

DODECA

Dodeca – a nod to the Greek word for 12, looks to be forged with its facets that interaction wonderfully with ambient light and and yet counterintuitive with its inner circular illumination. Created in refined sizes of 28, 36 and 46 inches in diameter, various finishes include black, white, brass, bronze, copper and limited edition 24 karat gold. With high density, high output LEDs, it has grown into a fixture known for coming to life when turned on, however remains an equally beautiful sculpture at rest.

MILA

A labour of love, Mila was realized through the marriage of hand blown artisan glass with the soft geometry of bent form. Simple and elegant, the glow of pearl-like spheres hang in delicate harmony within nests of precious metal.

The Mila pendant is perfect in both commercial and domestic settings; a refined and elegant piece with a signature, graphic language.
